

OLGC Student Discipline Policy

One of the major roles of Our Lady of Good Counsel School is to develop socially responsible, inner directed and self-disciplined persons capable of choosing freely in accordance with a well-formed conscience. This conscience is reinforced by the rules and norms established by the school and the classroom teacher.

Discipline at OLGC School is meant to develop within the students' courtesy and respect for themselves, their teachers, other adults and their fellow students. Rules and policies are also set to insure the safety and health of all the students.

A. CLASSROOM CONDUCT

Emphasis is placed on developing good habits in work, play and study. The effectiveness of any learning situation relies on the positive participation and self-discipline of the students. Both teachers and students function best in an atmosphere that is purposeful, responsive and conducive to learning, and free of disruption. Students who come to class unprepared for their lessons, with an unreceptive or negative attitude, unwilling to apply themselves to the learning task, or disrupting the class with unnecessary talking and/or inappropriate conduct will be corrected. If the inappropriate conduct persists, the parents will be contacted. In certain instances the principal may also be involved.

OLGC School follows the preventive method of St. John Bosco of Reason, Religion, Loving Kindness and Active Presence and uses Restorative Justice methods when correction is needed or necessary.

B. STUDENT SAFETY AND SECURITY

At Our Lady of Good Counsel we strive to create a safe, caring, respectful and welcoming school environment where all are accepted regardless of their gender, race, religion, culture, sexual orientation or gender identity and expression. This environment is characterized by positive relationships between students, staff and parents. Every student has the right to an education and the right to be and feel safe in and around the school. Therefore, everyone has rights and responsibilities in cultivating and maintaining a safe environment where all have the right to belong. Our Lady of Good Counsel School does not tolerate aggressive or violent behaviour. This includes deliberate acts intended to harm, intimidate, alienate or injure another person. Aggressive retaliation also falls into this category. OLG School community works to protect each student's physical safety, social connectedness, inclusiveness and protection from all forms of harassment, bullying or cyber-bullying, regardless of their gender, race, culture, religion, sexual orientation or gender identity.

Students and parents are advised that weapons or replicas of any kind are prohibited on the school premises or at any school event. A weapon is defined as:

1. anything used or intended for use for the purpose of threatening or intimidating any person; or
2. anything used or intended for use in causing death or injury.

Student who has brought a dangerous object to school will be subject to disciplinary action. Carrying a concealed weapon is contrary to the Criminal Code of Canada. Anyone convicted of such a charge is liable for imprisonment.

Please consult the school website for the Fair Notice Policies for students and parents in regards to Violent Threat Risk Assessment.

CONSEQUENCES
